CALL ROOM

Competitors present themselves before each start in the call room, which is located in the stadium tribune (ground floor), from where they will be taken to the competition sectors.

The end of the call is set at:

Event:	Call Room Opens (minutes)	Departure to Event (minutes)
Track events	20	15

Pole Vault	65	60
High Jump	35	35
Field Events	25	20

AWARD CEREMONIES

In each event the first 3 individuals will receive medals and diplomas.

In the team competition each participating country will receive a trophy.

DRESSING ROOM

Dressing rooms will be available in the premises of the warm-up stadium. The organizer is not responsible for things left in the dressing room, on the stands and in the stadium.

MEDICAL SERVICE

Medical service will be available in the stadium and warm-up area premises throughout the event.

PROTESTS

Protests related to the results, or which arose during the competition in a certain discipline, must be submitted orally to the head referee of the discipline immediately, no later than 30 minutes after the official announcement of the results of the given discipline on the scoreboard (Rule No. 8 of the Technical Rules of World Athletics).

An appeal against the decision of the head judge of the discipline can be submitted in writing within 30 minutes after the official notification of the decision of the head judge of the discipline (Rule No. 8 of the Technical Rules of World Athletics).

The appeal, together with a deposit of €50, is submitted to the head referee of the competition, and the final decision is made by a jury.

The jury consists of the following competition officials:

- technical delegate (appointed by the SAZ Sports and Technical Commission),
- referee instructor (appointed by the SAZ Referee Commission),
- chief of referee, if he did not rule on the oral protest in the first stage of the protest procedure according to Rule No. 8 of the SA Technical Rules. In other cases, one of the other head judges is a member of the jury.

If one of these officials (jury) is not present or appointed, he will complete or the composition of the jury is determined by the competition director. When composing the jury, the principle must be observed that the members of the jury must be referees with referee qualifications at the national level, they must not decide on a protest in the first stage of the protest procedure according to rule No. 8 of the WA Technical Rules, and they should be from three different athletic divisions.

TECHNICAL NOTES

- a) All competitors selected by the competent doping control body are obliged to submit to a doping control. SAF is obliged to ensure the conditions for this inspection according to the relevant instructions.
